

Mark Zimmerman

Advisor: IT, Communications and Entertainment at MaRS Discovery District

Toronto, ON, CA

The Entrepreneurs Lifeguard! Experienced advisor who has successfully steered many start-ups through the rough seas of business development

Description

Mark advises entrepreneurs in the information technology, communications and entertainment practice at MaRS. He specializes in B2B enterprise software, SaaS business models as well as security and privacy. Mark is member of the MaRS web business advisory panel and an advisor to New Ventures Projects at the Richard Ivey School of Business.

Mark has been working in the information and communication technology industry for more than 15 years. He has worked with some of the biggest companies in the industry, but he has also worked with very early stage start-ups so he knows what it's like to be in an entrepreneur's shoes.

He has been a key leader of three start-ups: Netcom Canada, an Internet Service Provider sold to AT&T Canada in 1999; Nextair Inc., a developer of software for wireless devices sold to a major Canadian technology company in early 2005; and ConnectedN, a software as a service (SaaS) company developing simple and intuitive social communications tools.

He has also held senior sales, marketing, solutions development and innovation roles at Bell Canada and AT&T Canada.

At Bell he developed and helped launch several innovative new businesses in areas as diverse as real estate, local search and reviews and home security and monitoring. At AT&T he product managed the high growth $150 million+ internet access, hosting and security business lines and led the Advanced Internet Solutions consulting team.

Accomplishments

Advisor: IT, Communications and Entertainment â€™ MaRS Discovery District

MaRS is where science, technology and social entrepreneurs get the help they need. Where all kinds of people meet to spark new ideas. And where a global reputation for innovation is being earned, one success story at a time. MaRS provides resources â€™ people, programs, physical facilities, funding and networks â€™ to ensure that critical innovation happens. We stimulate, identify and harness great ideas, nurture their development and guide the transformation of those ideas into reality.

Founder and Principal â€™ Tiny Ship Consulting Services

Tiny Ship Consulting provides strategy, management advice and services to technology and telecom companies. We aim to help you navigate the vast sea of chaos that is todayâ€™s market.

Entrepreneurship Mentor â€™ The Next 36

The goal of The Next 36 is to help launch the careers of Canadaâ€™s most promising and innovative undergraduates. The program will identify these students through a rigorous selection process, and give them the academic foundation, practical skills, role models and networks to become Canadaâ€™s next generation of entrepreneurial leaders. Students learn from high-profile business leaders, entrepreneurs and academics while wrestling with the challenge of building a new venture from idea to market.

Ivey Entrepreneur-In-Residence

Ivey Entrepreneurs-in-Residence are people with an outstanding track record as owner-leaders or through their involvement in start-ups, who share their expertise and exceptional knowledge with HBA and MBA students enrolled in the Ivey New Venture Project. Students gain real life knowledge through one-on-one coaching to develop a thorough business plan ready to take to market.
