

Maurice Hudson

Adjunct Lecturer Dept of Social Change & Innovation at USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work

Los Angeles, CA, US

Maurice Hudson is an expert in crisis intervention, case management, and foster care social work.

Biography

MAURICE HUDSON is an adjunct lecturer in the Master of Social Work program at the University Park Campus, where he teaches courses on evidence-informed practice, critical analysis and social welfare research.

An experienced social worker and educator, he is a licensed attorney in the state of New York with more than a decade of experience representing and providing direct services to children, adolescents, adults, organizations, legal entities and governmental agencies in public, private and academic settings.

Prior to joining USC, Hudson held a variety of positions, including crisis interventionist, case manager, foster care social worker and director of a resource center that provided services around gender and sexual diversity issues. He also served as a government attorney and consumer protection legal advocate.

His current academic and professional interests include transgenerational epigenetics and trauma, adverse effects of social media, civic enfranchisement, international human rights and corporate governance reform.

Industry Expertise

Legal Services, Health Care - Services, Health and Wellness, Health Care - Providers, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Social Media, Foster Care, Crisis Intervention, Case Management, Trauma

Education

Case Western Reserve University

J.D.

University of California, Berkeley

M.S.W.

University of California, Santa Barbara

B.A.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.