Michael Ehrlich

Associate Professor of Finance and Co-Director of NJ Innovation Acceleration Center at New Jersey Institute of Technology

Newark, NJ, US

Professor Ehrlich's research focuses on financial markets and institutions, with an emphasis on market failures

Biography

Professor Ehrlich's research focuses on financial markets and institutions, with an emphasis on market failures. He has written about the unintended consequences of financial market innovation and is Associate Director of the Leir Center for Financial Bubble Research. Recently he has focused on the challenges of innovation, entrepreneurship, and commercializing new technology with emphasis on developing inclusive entrepreneurship. Recently, Ehrlich has presented impacts of the economic effects of the coronavirus, which include tourism and travel, supply chain disruptions, and the "flight to quality."

Areas of Expertise

Innovation, Commercialization of Innovation, Market Failures, Financial Crises, Financial Markets, Finance, Financial Institutions, Financial Market Innovations, Entrepeneurship, Small Business Development

Education

Princeton University
PhD Economics

Yale University
BA Economics

Accomplishments

Business Process Analyst Mastery Award for Educators
Proven expertise to identify key performance indicators (KPI) and apply business process and change management concepts to help achieve objectives, using IBM Blueworks. He has demonstrated advanced proficiency on topics such as process analysis and improvement, BPMN, change management, priority matrix, upstream & downstream impacts, and KPIs.

Established and Co-Direct the New Jersey Innovation Acceleration Center
Established center whose mission is to help commercialize new technology and to help companies to speed their time to market and revenue metrics. U.S. EDA grant funded activities include education of North Jersey based entrepreneurs.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.