

Micheal Burch

FCPA, FCA, CFP, Managing Partner at Welch LLP

Ottawa / Toronto, ON, CA

A Managing Partner with detailed expertise on all areas of personal and corporate taxation.

Micheal provides specialty support in all areas of taxation – corporate and personal. He also has extensive experience in financial and estate planning, as well as cross-border consulting.

Micheal joined the Welch LLP team in 1978 after graduating from the University of Ottawa, where he received his Bachelor of Administration degree. He went on to receive his CA designation in 1981 and his Certified Financial Planner designation thereafter. Micheal left the firm for a few years where he gained critical experience in the entrepreneur/owner-managed space. He returned to the Tax Group at Welch LLP in 1990 and was made a partner in 1993. In 2006 he took over the role of Ottawa office Managing Partner, a role he continues to fulfill. He is also the Chairman of the firm wide Executive Committee.

Micheal played an integral part in the development of the IT branch of Welch LLP and actively participates in Welch LLP sponsored athletic teams.

Micheal's community involvement includes being a Trustee and Treasurer of Ottawa Sports Hall of Fame and being an active member of the organizing committee for the Ronald McDonald House Ski-Fest. (An annual event that raises a significant portion of the operating funds for Ronald McDonald House in Ottawa).
