

Michele Harway, PhD

Faculty Research Specialist - School of Psychology at Fielding Graduate University

Thousand Oaks, CA, US

Couples and Family Psychologist

Description

Michele Harway, PhD, ABPP, is a faculty member in the School of Psychology at the Fielding Graduate University and maintains a small private practice in Westlake Village, California, where she specializes in couples and family therapy and working with trauma survivors. She is board certified in Couples and Family Psychology (American Board of Professional Psychology).

Dr. Harway has authored or edited eleven books, many book chapters and journal articles; and has presented at numerous professional conferences on couples therapy, domestic violence, trauma survival, gender and family issues. Active in several divisions of the American Psychological Association (APA), she is a fellow of four divisions; a former president of Division 43 (Family Psychology); former treasurer of Division 51 (Men and Masculinity); and current representative to APA's Council of Representatives from Div. 43.

Dr. Harway was recently elected to the Board of Advancement of Psychology in the Public Interest (BAPPI) of APA. She has worked and lived overseas and maintains an interest in international issues.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research, Training and Development

Topics

SPSS, Couple & Family Intervention, Gender Issues, Men and Masculinity, Couples and Families, Domestic Violence (Partner and Victim), Women's Development, Statistics, Quantitative and Qualitative Research Methods

Affiliations

California Psychological Association : Member, Ventura County Psychological Association : Member, Sigma Xi : Member, Academy of Couple Psychology : Member, American Psychological Association (Fellow 35 43 51 56) : Member, American Board of Couple & Family Psychology (ABPP) : Member

Past Talks

Symposium on Navigating Multiple Identities

119th annual convention of the American Psychological Association Convention

Invited Discussant

International Conference on the Family

Applying the psychology of men to dynamics of domestic violence
114th annual convention of the American Psychological Association

Education

University of Maryland
PhD Social and Developmental Psychology

Accomplishments

Outstanding Contribution to American Board of Professional Psychology and American Board of Couple and Family Psychology

Author or editor of 12 books in research, couples and family, gender and interpersonal violence

Diplomate in Family Psychology

Conferred by the American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP).

Family Psychologist of the Year

Awarded by the Family Psychology Division of the American Psychological Association.

Fellow

Conferred by the American Psychological Association, Division 35.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.