Testimonials

Kenneth Lo

Ming was extremely generous with his time and expertise and agreed to deliver a world-class keynote at the 2nd Annual NAAAP-SF Gateway to Leadership Conference (<http://naaapsf.org>).

Then he managed to mentor a table full of conference attendees during the luncheon, which was merely minutes before his individual session on personal branding started!

Ming truly loves what he does and is very devoted to sharing with the community. We are so blessed with your participation!

Ming is not only a great entrepreneur but also an excellent CEO. I was fortunate enough to meet him and work with him through Vistage International. Ming has great knowledge of the digital world, superb business savvy and ability to get along with all kinds of people. He was a speaker at my Vistage CEO meeting and all the other CEOs and business leaders there were impressed with his knowledge and personality - that included some heads of $50M - $100M companies!
