

Natasha Chaykowski

Curator at Middlebrook Prize Winners

Banff, AB, CA

Natasha Chaykowski is a joint winner of the 2014 Middlebrook Prize.

Biography

Natasha Chaykowski lives and works in Montreal. She has organized numerous exhibitions, discursive programs and arts-based events. Chaykowski held a curatorial assistant position at Art Gallery of Ontario, co-curated the annual Emerging Artist Exhibition at InterAccess in Toronto with Nancy Webb and is the co-recipient of the 2014 Middlebrook Prize for Young Canadian Curators. She was Editorial Assistant for the Journal of Curatorial Studies and the Editorial Resident at Canadian Art magazine in 2014. Her writing has been published in Carbon Paper, the Art Gallery of York University, esse: arts + opinions, Canadian Art, Gallery 44, and the Journal of Curatorial Studies.

Industry Expertise

Research, Fine Art, Design

Areas of Expertise

Art, Art History, Curatorial Projects, Grant Writing, Contemporary Art

Education

University of Ottawa

B.A. Art History

York University

M.A. Art History

Accomplishments

Middlebrook Prize for Young Canadian Curators

Awarded for the exhibition I'm Feeling Lucky

Canadian Art Editorial Residency

This residency is a national prize awarded annually to a current undergraduate, graduate or other post-secondary student with an interest in developing expertise in the realm of professional art-magazine publishing.

Young Critics Competition

Awarded by esse arts + opinions.

Good Ideas award

Awarded by the University of Ottawa.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.