

Ozgur Turetken

Director & Professor, Information Technology Management at Ted Rogers School of Management
Toronto, ON, CA

Expert in Applied Analytics and Individual Decision Making

Biography

Professor Ozgur Turetken (Ph.D., Oklahoma State University, MBA, BS METU, Ankara, Turkey) joined TRSITM in 2006. Prior to that, he served on the faculty of Temple University Fox School of Business and Management for 6 years. Dr. Turetken's scholarly interests are mainly in applied (text) analytics especially in the context of individual decision making. His research on the organization and presentation of information as they relate to decision outcomes has been published in international journals and conferences, and has been funded by NSERC and SSHRC among other agencies. Ozgur is also a recipient of Ryerson SRC award in 2010. He is active in various research communities as an editor, special interest group officer, and track chair. He has developed and taught many undergraduate and graduate courses, mostly in evidence based management and supervised several theses. Ozgur also served in many committees at the departmental, faculty, and university levels at Ryerson. His service contributions have been recognized by the 2010 TRSM Service Award.

Areas of Expertise

Human-Computer Interaction in Web 2.0, Applied Analytics, Information Technology, Individual Decision Making, Telework, Artificial Intelligence for Decision Support

Education

Oklahoma State University

PhD Business Administration-Management Science and Information Systems

Middle East Technical University

MBA Management

Middle East Technical University

BSc Electrical Engineering

Accomplishments

Scholarly Research and Creative Activity Award

Ryerson University, Ted Rogers School of Management

Service Award

Ryerson University, Ted Rogers School of Management

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.