

Pascal Perry

University Lecturer // Java Programming at University of Nice Sophia-Antipolis

Nice Area, France, , FR

Head, Online Findability / Enterprise Search Optimization (ESO) / Search Engine Optimization (SEO)

Biography

Seasoned, hands-on Internet Marketing manager specialized in Enterprise Search Optimization (ESO) and Search Engine Optimization (SEO), I build multidisciplinary and multicultural teams to devise and execute initiatives to acquire customers online, and impact bottom line by growing revenue while reducing traditional marketing costs.

My full-stack competencies in business, marketing, and computer science fields allow me to implement agile and faster operational approaches beyond mere ESO and SEO projects.

Am bilingual English-French, can chitchat in Spanish, and have started learning Chinese and Italian. Well versed in copywriting, communication, and public speaking.

Co-founded in 2002 Technology Evaluation Centers (TEC) to help enterprise software buyers lower costs, risks, and time associated with software acquisition by providing them with a decision-support system (DSS) to impartially evaluate, compare, and select software solutions best matching their business, functional, and technical needs.

Co-founder in 2003 and president of a non-profit organization managing $600,000+ annual membership contributions.

Member of the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) Data & Analysis Center for Software (DACs) and the U.S. Defense Acquisition University (DAU) Acquisition Community Connection (ACC).

Life-long university student and teacher, am also an avid marathoner, skyrunner, and apneist.
