Keep Your Uniform On

Biography

Born with cerebral palsy that hinders the use of his body's right side, Paul has battled numerous physical, social and vocational difficulties with a strong faith in God, a strong will and a sense of humor.

Paul's objective is motivating people to face their challenges with a fighting spirit. He weaves vivid personal stories into his never-give-up talk. Learn about Paul's near death experience as a child, enduring hurtful comments growing up from other children and suffering a life-changing fall in a third-world country. Through these stories and others, Paul shares the importance of showing resolve in dealing with tough situations.

Testimonials

Scott Drew

"Paul Delger spoke to our team before our road game at Iowa St. I can't say for certain that is why we won the game at Iowa St, but what I do know is it inspired our team and most importantly it is a godly message which deals with the hardships of life."

Tom Brown

"You have an awesome story that a lot of people can learn and benefit from! Thank you so much for your willingness to share and be open."
