Achieve outstanding ROI with this marketing & communication management specialist who brings thirty years of expertise and creativity

Biography

Peter has highly-developed strategic marketing communications, general management, creative and writing expertise, focusing on Creative Development, Internet, User Experience and Branding issues. As well, he possesses in-depth knowledge of a large number of vertical markets and a wealth of experience in creating compelling business cases for use in corporate decision making.

Peter consults to organizations in the areas of Effective Communications, is on the faculty and sits on the board of a number of marketing trade associations, as well as conducting regular lectures and workshops.

A Netizen since the mid-eighties, an Internet Pioneer and international speaker, Peter was a founding member of MAGIC (Macintosh Awareness Group in Canada) BBS (Bulleting Board System) where he had the very first advertising related web page (The 4000th web page!) in 1992 with Magic Media's "Adrap".

As well as working for some of the world's most prestigious retailers, Peter has also helped manufacturers in creating highly-successful, trade campaigns - some notables are Duracell Canada Ltd, Effem Foods, Labatt Breweries of Canada, Lindt & Sprungli, Whitehall Robbins, Kraft Foods and Adams Brands.

He has an impressive list of online accomplishments in the retail space. Some of the sites he has to his credit are Apple, Saks Fifth Avenue, Walgreens, Harley Davidson, Dockers, The BrandsGroup and Canada Trust Easy-Web among others. He also lectures on the Social Web and owns the rights to The Cluetrain - which he uses in his lectures.

Peter is currently the President of The Direct Marketing Association of Toronto, and the owner/proprietor of OneDegree.ca Canada's leading online publication about digital marketing, online communications and social media.

Peter specializes in user experience, branding, effective communications, strategic planning and consults with government organizations, not-for-profits and numerous Fortune 500 companies on areas of Internet strategy.

Peter is a sought after conference and keynote speaker, and has lectured for Georgian College and the Schulich School of Business York University.
