

Prof. Marie Beaulieu

Professor, School of Social Work at University of Sherbrooke

Sherbrooke, QC, CA

Marie Beulaieu is a professor at the department of social services of the faculty of letters and humanities of the Université de Sherbrooke.

Biography

Marie Beaulieu Ph. D. (Applied Human Sciences), M.Sc and B.Sc. (Criminology) is full professor at the Department of Service Social at Université de Sherbrooke and researcher at the CSSS-IUGS Research Center on Aging. She holds, since November 2010, the Research Chair on Mistreatment of Older Adults, funded by the Quebec government's Department of the Family and Seniors. Social gerontologist, her main work representing 25 years of struggle in the field, addresses mistreatment, older adults' security issues, ethics and aging as well as intervention in end of life situations. Marie Beaulieu is the North American representative at the INPEA (International Network for Prevention of Elder Abuse) and she serves on the Board of the CNPEA (Canadian Network for Prevention of Elder Abuses). She teaches and supervises in the Bachelor and Master's degrees in Social Service as well as in the Ph.D. in Gerontology at Université de Sherbrooke, in addition to training practising practitioners and various groups of the public various audiences in Quebec, Canada and internationally.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research

Areas of Expertise

Public Policy, Active Ageing, Elder Abuse, Human Rights, Frailty

Education

University of Montreal

Ph.D. Applied Human Sciences

University of Montreal

Master of Science Criminology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.