

Randall Howard

General Partner at Verdexus

Kitchener, ON, CA

Senior serial technology executive working to build world leading, high growth technology organizations

A prolific serial technology CEO, investor and philanthropist, committed to building world leading high growth technology organizations through "Venture 2.0" boutique VERDEXUS. We have a globally portfolio of business-to-business, "Enterprise 2.0" companies in which I help drive strategic execution as founding General Partner.

Currently, General Partner at Verdexus, a transatlantic strategic advisory firm, primarily delivering our "Venture 2.0" hands on investment playbook to early and mid-stage companies in Canada and Europe. Prior to 2001 was founder and CEO of MKS, a global lead in application lifecycle management solutions, which was sold in 2011 to Parametric Technology Corporation for $304 million.

I am passionate about building a globally competitive tech ecosystem locally and helped grow Golden Triangle AngelNet by driving its Selection process such that over 40 transactions were completed from inception in 2009.

Finally, I have a passion for transformation and growth in the world of Social Enterprises and believe that a new crop of "Social Innovation" can truly change the world. In that regard, am Director since founding of Innovation Guelph, Board Chair of Centre Wellington Community Foundation and Director and Treasurer of Roseneath Theatre. In late 2013 was invited to the "Group of Seven" by Governor General David Johnston to assist in nation building around Canada's 150th birthday in 2017.

I bring long experience as a corporate director with strong knowledge of governance, strategic risk assessment and financial literacy.
