

Randall Rogan

Professor of Communication at Wake Forest University

Winston-Salem, NC, US

Rogan is an internationally recognized expert on both international and domestic terrorism and hostage negotiation.

Biography

Randall Rogan is an internationally recognized expert on terrorism and hostage negotiation. His expertise in communication analysis and author identification led to his work with the FBI and played a key role in helping identify the Unabomber. With more than 26 years of communication research and teaching experience at Wake Forest Rogan can also offer expertise on conflict in Israel and Palestine due to his most recent work. His expertise on the discourse of jihadism has led to his participation at the World Summit for Counter-Terrorism, as well as at international crisis negotiation meetings. His comments have appeared in BBC News, Christian Science Monitor, The Chronicle of Higher Education and a variety of other publications.

Areas of Expertise

Interpersonal Communication, Counterterrorism, Crisis Negotiation, Communication and Conflict, Author Identification, Hostage Negotiations, Terrorism

Education

Michigan State University

Ph.D. Communicaiton

Michigan State University

M.S. Resource Development

St. John Fisher College

B.A. Sociology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.