

Rebecca Macy, Ph.D., M.S.W.

Professor, UNC School of Social Work & L. Richardson Preyer Distinguished Chair for Strengthening Families at UNC-Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill, NC, US

Dr. Rebecca Macy is a faculty member at the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Dr. Rebecca Macy is the Preyer Distinguished Chair for Strengthening Families, and a Professor at the UNC School of Social Work. Her professional interests include family violence, interpersonal violence, human trafficking, violence prevention, interventions to promote violence survivors health and well-being, community-based research and engaged scholarship

Dr. Macy joined the faculty of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2002, after receiving a doctoral degree in social welfare from the University of Washington in Seattle, and a M.S.W. from Tulane University in New Orleans. Additionally, Dr. Macy is a licensed social worker with practice experience in community mental health where she has worked with violence survivors.

Education/Learning, Social Services, Research, Mental Health Care

Partner Violence, Crisis Intervention, Group Therapy, Community Outreach, Program Development, Training & Development, Higher Education, Public Speaking, Grant Writing, Human Trafficking, Sexual Assault and Violence, Domestic Violence

Council for Social Work Education : Member, National Association for Social Workers : Member , Society for Social Work and Research : Member

Helping CPS—and court—involved moms who are intimate partner violence survivors with their parenting and mental health

American Society on the Abuse of Children's 23rd Annual Colloquium

Appraising competency--based student evaluation strategies

European Association of Schools of Social Work 2015 Conference: Social Work Education In Europe: Toward 2025

Lessons Learned in Incorporating Technology for Evaluation in North Carolina Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Agencies

Presentation at the Innovations in Domestic and Sexual Violence Research and Practice Conference

Developing statewide anti--human trafficking capacity: A qualitative evaluation

18th Annual Conference of the Society for Social Work and Research

University of Washington

Ph.D. School of Social Work: Social Welfare

Tulane University

M.S.W. School of Social Work: Social Work Practice with Families and Children

Hanover College

B.A. Psychology and French

WCHL Village Pride Award (2014-5)

Each day WCHL recognizes and celebrates a Hometown Hero. Dr. Macy was recognized twice, on July 28, 2014 and April 7, 2015.

Office of the Provost Award for Engaged Research (2013)

The Office of the Provost Engaged Scholarship Award was established in 2000 by Provost Dick Richardson to recognize extraordinary public service and engaged scholarship at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mary Ann Chap Award for Community Service (2010)

The Mary Ann Chap Award is given to those who have made major contributions toward achieving the Center's mission: to stop sexual violence through support, education, and advocacy.

Dean's Recognition of Teaching Excellence (2005-6)

Awarded to Dr. Macy in 2005 and 2006, School of Social Work, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.