

Rob Pegoraro

Contract columnist at Prose Hacking, LLC

Washington D.C. Metro Area, VA, US

Curious, sometimes cranky consumer-tech writer

Description

I try to make sense of computers, consumer electronics, telecom services, the Internet, software and other things that beep or blink through my reporting, reviewing and analysis. I've done that in multiple channels: a weekly newspaper column and Q&A feature, frequent blog posts, Web chats, tweets, radio and TV interviews, podcasts and public-speaking appearances.
