

Robert Bruce

Director at UNC - Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill, NC, US

Higher education leader specializing in continuing education, online learning, teaching, outreach, and engagement.

Description

Rob Bruce is a leader in higher education with over twenty years of experience in a variety of administrative and academic roles, including strategic planning, online learning, teaching, technology-enhanced learning, continuing education, outreach and engagement, faculty and graduate student development, research, and development.

He is currently the Director of the William and Ida Friday Center for Continuing Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he leads advances in continuing education initiatives online, in the classroom, and at the Center's state-of-the-art continuing education conference facility.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Topics

Online Learning, Technology Enhanced Learning, Strategic Planning, Teaching, Continuing Education, Faculty Development, Graduate Student Development, Research and Development

Affiliations

UPCEA Unbound Editorial Board

Sample Talks

“Leadership Discussion Forum: Best Leadership Practices in Today’s Change Environment”

2014. 99th Annual University Continuing Education Association Conference. Miami, Florida.

“Continuing Education Leaders Forum”

2012. 98th Annual University Continuing Education Association Conference. Boston, Massachusetts.

“Samuel Langhorne Clemens: God’s Fool”

2010. UT Odyssey Lecture Series. Austin, Texas.

“Leading Innovation: An Entire Statewide University System Goes Virtual”

2010. 95th Annual University Continuing Education Association Conference. San Francisco, California.

