

Robert Wilson

Associate Provost at Cedar Crest College

Allentown, PA, US

Director of the Writing Program.

As an avid fan of American literature, Robert frequently teaches courses on Edgar Allan Poe, Hitchcock, American romanticism, Native American literature and more.

He greatly enjoys the diversity of learning opportunities offered at Cedar Crest College, and notes that the ability to explore various interests isn't just limited to students. Robert has been able to combine a passion for literature with a love of film and writing to allow students - and himself - to view the world in a new way.
