

Sherry Grace

Professor, School of Kinesiology and Health Science at York University

Toronto, ON, CA

Professor Sherry Grace's research interests lie in the areas of cardiac rehabilitation delivery and use, as well as cardiac psychology.

Biography

Sherry L. Grace, PhD, FCCS holds her primary appointment as Full Professor in the Faculty of Health at York University. She is also appointed at the University Health Network, University of Toronto, as Sr. Scientist with the Cardiovascular Rehabilitation & Prevention Program and member of the Peter Munk Cardiac Centre.

Prof. Grace's research centers on global cardiovascular rehabilitation access and delivery, as well as cardiac psychology. She has published close to 200 papers, and authored clinical practice guidelines. She led the development of the pan-Canadian quality indicators for cardiac rehabilitation and secondary prevention, and a national policy position on systematic inpatient referral.

Prof. Grace earned a Canadian Association of Cardiovascular Prevention and Rehabilitation Leadership Award for translation of research into practice. Finally, she was instrumental in the development of the International Council on Cardiovascular Prevention and Rehabilitation, serving on the Executive Board.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research

Areas of Expertise

Healthcare, Public Health, Clinical Research, Heart Disease, Behavioural Cardiology

Affiliations

Senior Scientist, University Health Network, Director of Research, Cardiovascular Rehabilitation & Prevention Program, Peter Munk Cardiac Centre, University Health Network, Member, Kinesiology and Health Science, Faculty of Graduate Studies, York University, Member, Heart & Stroke/Richard Lewar Centre of Excellence, University of Toronto, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto

Education

University of Windsor

Ph.D. Psychology

Lakehead University

M.A. Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.