What You Should Know About IP Taxation

Charles F. Kettering (an American engineer, the inventor of the electric starter and holder of 140 patents) said "Thinking is one thing no one has ever been able to tax." Well ? that's not exactly true. Converting your ideas into IP assets is exciting, but what happens when you start making money? Have you planned ahead to reduce or eliminate the tax bill? Tax affects the entire cycle of IP creation, protection and exploitation, come learn what you need to know about IP and tax.
