

Stephen Hernandez

School of Education Associate Dean for Grants and Teacher Performance Assessment, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Specialized Programs in Education at Hofstra University

Hempstead, NY, US

Stephen Hernandez is a specialist in teacher certification, special education and early childhood special education.

Biography

Stephen J. Hernandez has been a member of the faculty in the School of Education at Hofstra University since 2004. In addition, he has extensive experience as an adjunct professor at other area colleges, teaching courses in special education, disabilities, child development, psychology, and nonprofit management. Dr. Hernandez earned a BA from Fordham University, an MS in Education from Long Island University-Brooklyn College, a Professional Diploma in Educational Administration from Fordham University's Graduate School of Education and his EdD from Hofstra University. In addition to Dr. Hernandez's work in academia, he has worked for more than 30 years serving individuals with special needs. He has held positions ranging in scope from direct care service provider to classroom instructor to various administrative capacities. Most recently as an administrator with the Brookville Center for Children's Services at Marcus Avenue in New Hyde Park, NY, as well as at United Cerebral Palsy of Westchester in Purchase, NY. Dr. Hernandez's areas of research include collaborative teaming, interdisciplinary intervention and the management of children's challenging behavior. His teaching interests include understanding emotional and behavioral disorders of children and youth as well as the assessment and diagnosis of young children with developmental delays and disabilities.

Dr. Hernandez is a member of the Council for Exceptional Children, the National Association for the Education of the Young Child, The American Academy of Special Education Professionals, and The International Association of Special Education. Dr. Hernandez also serves on several statewide boards representing children with and without disabilities, including the New York State Council for Exceptional Children as well as the Association for the Education of Young Children.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Collaboration, Special Education, Teacher Certification, Early Childhood Special Education

Event Appearances

Invited Presenter

First annual conference on Autism Spectrum Disorders

Presenter

New York State Association for the Education of Young Children Annual Conference

Presenter

NYS Council for Exceptional Children Annual State Conference

Invited Presenter

Annual Conference on Autism at Hofstra University

Presenter

International Association of Special Education Biennial Conference

Presenter

NYS Council for Exceptional Children Annual State Conference

EducationHofstra University

EdD Educational Leadership and Policy Studies

Fordham University

Professional Diploma Educational Administration

Long Island University

MS Education, Guidance Counseling

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.