

Steven Bonorris

Lecturer in Law at UC Hastings College of the Law

San Francisco, CA, US

Contacts: bonorris@uchastings.edu

Biography

Steven Bonorris is a Lecturer in Law and previously served as the acting director of the Center for State and Local Government Law at UC Hastings College of the Law. Prior to coming to Hastings, he worked for the U.S. Department of the Treasury as an Honors Attorney, and for the U.S. Congress. He also co-founded a non-profit research group in Washington, D.C., and worked as a management consultant at the Corporate Executive Board. During his time at Hastings, he has taught courses on the law of climate change, the legislative process, and public Law and policy, as well as conducting a wide variety of research into topics including the implementation of AB 32, the Global Warming Solutions Act, for the California Air Resources Board. In recent years, he has researched the legality and potential structure of municipally owned financial institutions. Bonorris is a graduate of Harvard College and Law School and the Harvard School for Boys in North Hollywood, California.

Areas of Expertise

State and Local Government Law, Climate Change and the Law, Public Law and Policy

Education

Harvard Law School

J.D.

Harvard University

A.B. Philosophy

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.