

Sue Metzger

Faculty Director, VU Women in Tech; Information Systems Instructor | Villanova School of Business at Villanova University

Villanova , PA, US

Sue Metzger, MS, is an expert in advancing women in technology, mobile app development and entrepreneurship, and enterprise computing.

Biography

Sue Metzger is a solid source to discuss how education and industry can partner to encourage the participation and advancement of women in information technology fields. With decades of industry experience, and as Faculty Director of the Villanova University Women in Tech program, Metzger can speak about what needs to be done to bridge the gender gap in IT from both a business and academic perspective. She also has expertise in mobile application development and entrepreneurship as well as enterprise computing, including the Cloud.

Areas of Expertise

Business, Advancing Women in Technology, Mobile Application Development and Entrepreneurship, Enterprise Computing Including the Cloud, Collaborative Media, coding

Education

University of Pennsylvania

MSE

Bucknell University

BS

Select Accomplishments

The Wildcat Faculty Crossing Award

2017

Villanova University

Student nominated award given to a faculty member recognized for supporting under-represented and/or first-generation students through their Villanova journey.

The Meyer Innovation and Creative Excellence (ICE) Award

2016

Villanova University

Villanova's Innovation, Creativity, Entrepreneurship (ICE) Institute award conferred annually to recognize a faculty member who demonstrates the spirit of innovation, creativity, and entrepreneurship that enhances the university.

Gerald Dougherty Teaching Excellence Award Winner

2014

Villanova University

Student-generated and faculty vetted award recognizing excellence in teaching for undergraduate business school faculty.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.