

Suzanna Sherry

Herman O. Loewenstein Professor of Law at Vanderbilt University

Nashville, TN, US

Nationally renowned expert on the Supreme Court and constitutional law.

Biography

Sherry's work in the area of constitutional law has earned her national recognition as one of the most well-known scholars in the field. The author of more than 100 books and articles, she also writes extensively on federal courts and federal court procedures. After graduating from law school, Professor Sherry was a clerk for the Honorable John C. Godbold of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in Montgomery, Alabama, and then served as an associate with the law firm of Miller Cassidy Larroca & Lewin in Washington, D.C. She joined the Vanderbilt faculty in 2000 as the inaugural holder of the Cal Turner Chair, having previously served on the faculty of the University of Minnesota Law School since 1982. She was named the Herman O. Loewenstein Professor of Law in 2006.

Areas of Expertise

Constitutional Law, Constitutional Doctrine, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Constitutional Law and Theory, Federal Courts, Federal Judicial System, Federalism, The Supreme Court (U.S.), Supreme Court

Affiliations

New Voices, Journal of Law and Courts, The Green Bag, Constitutional Commentary , Planned Parenthood of Middle and Eastern Tennessee

Education

University of Chicago

J.D. Law

Middlebury College

A.B. History

Accomplishments

SEC Faculty Achievement Award recipient

2016-2017

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.