

Tammy Schirle

Associate Professor of Economics at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, ON, CA

Associate Professor of Economics & Director of the Laurier Centre for Economic Research and Policy Analysis

Biography

Tammy Schirle is an Associate Professor of Economics at Wilfrid Laurier University. She completed her Ph.D. at the University of British Columbia in 2006. She graduated from the University of Manitoba with a B.A.(Hons) in Economics in 1999 and completed her M.A. in Economics at Dalhousie University (Halifax) in 2000. She is currently Director of the Laurier Centre for Economic Research and Policy Analysis, Associate Editor for Canadian Public Policy, and Editor for the B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis & Policy. She is a C.D. Howe Institute Research Fellow, a member of the C.D. Howe Pension Policy Council, and a board member for the Canadian Labour Economics Forum. Her research interests include the economics of the elderly, income inequality, social policy, and the economics of gender. She has published articles in several academic journals, including the Journal of Labor Economics, Canadian Public Policy, Social Science and Medicine, and the Review of Income and Wealth.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research, Public Policy, Program Development

Areas of Expertise

Applied Econometrics, Economics of Gender, Economics of Aging, Public Economics, Labour Economics

Affiliations

Think Like a Canadian Economist video series, Director Laurier Centre for Economic Research & Policy Analysis, Associate Editor Canadian Public Policy, Editor B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis & Policy, Canadian Labour Economics Forum (Board Member)

Education

University of British Columbia

Ph.D. Economics

Dalhousie University

M.A. Economics

University of Manitoba

B.A. Economics

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.