

Teresa Di Felice

Assistant Vice President, Government and Community Relations at CAA Club Group
Thornhill, ON, CA

Teresa oversees CAA SCO's advocacy and community relations efforts in Ontario.

Biography

Teresa is the Assistant Vice President of Government & Community Relations at CAA South Central Ontario (CAA SCO), Canada's largest CAA Club. She has been with CAA since 2005. She is responsible for the overall direction and execution of the organization's advocacy strategies and programs, representing and raising awareness on relevant issues to CAA's over 2 million Members and with policymakers in Ontario. Teresa's breadth and range of knowledge on infrastructure, transportation, safety, automotive and industry issues related to CAA's work has resulted in many contributions to the development and execution of sound public policy. These include input into the province's cycling strategy, being a member of the Premier's panel on the Transit Investment Strategy, tow industry reform and on the transition team of the Mayor of Toronto, to name a few. Over the last three years Teresa has released two Conference Board of Canada reports related to how much motorists contribute to the cost of infrastructure and various tools and strategies related to mitigating congestion.
