

Thomas F. Babor, Ph.D.

Professor and Endowed Chair in Community Medicine and Public Health at University of Connecticut
Farmington, CT, US

Professor and Endowed Chair in Community Medicine and Public Health focused on alcohol advertising and regulation.

Description

Dr. Babor spent several years in postdoctoral research training in social psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, and subsequently served as head of social science research at McLean Hospital's Alcohol and Drug Abuse Research Center in Belmont, MA. In 1982 he moved to the University of Connecticut School of Medicine. He has served as the Scientific Director at the Alcohol Research Center and the interim Chair of the Psychiatry Department before moving to Community Medicine in 1998.

Dr. Babor is head of the Department of Community Medicine and Health Care and directs an active research program. He is also Associate Editor-in-Chief and Regional Editor of the international journal, Addiction

Topics

Treatment Evaluation, Screening and Prevention, Addiction, Alcohol Advertising, Alcohol, Drug Abuse, Alcohol Regulation, Diagnosis

Past Talks

Codes, Kids, and the World Cup: The Case Against Industry Self-Regulation of Alcohol Marketing
Alcohol Policy Conference

Education

Harvard School of Public Health
M.P.H. Psychiatric Epidemiology

University of Arizona
Ph.D. Social Psychology

University of Arizona
M.A. Psychology

Manhattan College
B.A. Psychology

Accomplishments

Distinguished International Scientist Collaboration Award
Centre for Social Research on Alcohol and Drugs, Stockholm University

First Prize in Public Health Category
British Medical Association

Medical Book Competition Alcohol: No Ordinary Commodity
Oxford University Press

The Jellinek Memorial Prize
University of Toronto

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.