

Tiffany Muller Myrdahl

Urbanist and Feminist Geographer at Simon Fraser University

Vancouver, BC, CA

Specializes in equity and inclusion. Uses policy analysis and collaborative research with women and LGBTQ people to examine urban change.

Biography

Tiffany Muller Myrdahl is an urbanist and feminist geographer. Her work combines interests in municipal social policy, participatory planning, and collaborative approaches to researching and responding to urban change.

Tiffany serves on the board of Women in Cities International and was active on the board of Women Transforming Cities from 2012-2015. She is a Senior Lecturer at Simon Fraser University and teaches with University of British Columbia's Humanities 101 program.

From 2012-2015, Tiffany held the Ruth Wynn Woodward Junior Chair in the Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University (Vancouver, Canada). She was an Assistant Professor in the Department of Women & Gender Studies at the University of Lethbridge (Alberta, Canada) from 2008-2013.

Dr Muller Myrdahl completed her PhD in Geography with a Certificate in Feminist Studies at the University of Minnesota in 2008.

Industry Expertise

Research, Women, Education/Learning, Public Policy, Program Development, Writing and Editing

Areas of Expertise

Geographies of social difference (with an emphasis on gender and sexuality) , Municipal Social Inclusion Policy, Qualitative and Mixed Method Research, Oral history methods for research and policymaking

Affiliations

Simon Fraser University , Women Transforming Cities, Women in Cities International

Education

University of Minnesota

Ph.D. Geography

University of Minnesota

M.PP. Public Policy

University of Wisconsin-Madison

B.A. History

Accomplishments

Ruth Wynn Woodward Junior Chair

Junior Chair in the Department of Gender, Sexuality, and Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.