Professor of Marketing at The University of Texas at Austin, McCombs School of Business

Austin, TX, US

Understanding consumer attitudes and behaviors, brand influence, and customer satisfaction

Biography

Wayne D. Hoyer is a marketing professor and expert on consumer psychology and behavior, decision-making, brand awareness and perception, pricing strategy, and the impact of advertising. His research explains how consumers process information and make buying decisions, and how marketers influence customer satisfaction and behavior.

Hoyer is the former chair of the department of marketing (ranked 3rd among top-tier marketing programs by U.S. News 2014), and holds the James L. Bayless/William S. Farrish Fund Chair for Free Enterprise at the McCombs School of Business, The University of Texas at Austin.

A prolific marketing researcher, Hoyer has published over 60 articles in the Journal of Consumer Research, Journal of Marketing Research, Journal of Marketing, Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science, Journal of Retailing, and other marketing and psychology forums. He is co-author of a textbook in consumer behavior with Deborah MacInnis (now in the 5th Edition). He has also taught internationally at the University of Mannheim, the University of Muenster, and the Otto Bleisheim School of Management in Germany, the University of Bern in Switzerland, and was a research fellow at the University of Cambridge (UK).
