

William Hatcher

Director, Master of Public Administration Program at Augusta University

Augusta, GA, US

Dr. William Hatcher focuses on public administration and social, economic and political institutions in local communities.

Biography

An award-winning scholar, Hatcher is the director of the Master of Public Administration program and an associate professor of political science. His research focuses on the connection between public administration and the development of local communities. Through his research, he tries to understand why public administration scholars and practitioners often have different views about the efficacy of certain administrative practices. His research has appeared in journals such as American Journal of Public Health, Journal of Public Affairs Education, Public Administration Quarterly, and The Review of Regional Studies. In the Department of Political Science, topics he teaches include public administration, public policy, public budgeting and finance, and community and economic development. He received his PhD from Mississippi State University in 2010.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Public Administration, Public Policy, Community and Economic Development, Health Policy, Public Budgeting and Finance

Affiliations

Phi Kappa Phi, National Honor Society, Pi Alpha Alpha, National Honor Society for Public Administration, Pi Sigma Alpha, National Honor Society for Political Science, American Society for Public Administration, Georgia Political Science Association

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.