

Xiaoyun Yu

Associate Professor of Finance at Kelley School of Business at Indiana University

Bloomington, IN, US

Expert in theoretical and empirical corporate finance, focusing on the nuances of information economics and the politics of economy finance

---

Biography

Xiaoyun Yu is an associate professor of Finance and Arthur M. Weimer Faculty Fellow at the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University. She obtained her Ph.D. in Finance from the Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota.

Her research interests are in the areas of theoretical and empirical corporate finance. Her current research focuses on information economics, security design, initial public offering, financial institutions and systems, and political economy of finance.

---

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Financial Services, Management Consulting, Information Services, International Affairs, Program Development, Writing and Editing

---

Areas of Expertise

Information Economics, Security Design, Initial Public Offering, Financial Institutions and Systems, Political Economy of Finance

---

Secondary Titles

Arthur M. Weimer Faculty Fellow

---

Education

Carlson School of Management, University of Minnesota

Ph.D. Finance

Southern Illinois University

M.B.A. Finance

Renmin University of China

B.A. International Economics

---

Accomplishments

Sun Yefang Financial Innovation Award

2016

Award for the “The Brain Gain of Corporate Boards: Evidence from China”

CAFR Project Fund

2015

Award for “When is Smart Money Smart? Evidence from IPO Overpricing in China”

TCFA Award for the Best Paper on Corporate Finance

2013

Award for “Cultural Proximity and the Processing of Financial Information”

CICF Best Paper Award

2013

Award for “Cultural Proximity and the Processing of Financial Information”

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.