You'll love getting this flip off! Uberflip's CEO will give your audience the scoop on leading edge digital publishing web applications

Description

Yoav Schwartz is CEO and co-founder of Uberflip, providing the strategic vision and business management of the company. Utilizing 14 years of hands-on experience in all aspects of web application development & design, Yoav also oversees product development, infrastructure and managing the technology team.

With a Computer Science degree from the University of Western Ontario, Yoav is a unique combination of a creative and analytical thinker. Involved in several family-owned businesses throughout his career, Yoav has been exposed to all facets of business and industries such as commercial flooring products.

Yoav was the key system architect and designer in the creation of the original Uberflip concept Mygazines. In his spare time, Yoav likes to kick back with one of his guitars in hand; most recently trying to perfect Bach's Bourrée in E minor.

Designing for Digital: Creating Content That Shines on Different Platforms

Engaging digital audiences takes more than turning your print content into a boring PDF. Consider layout, colors, font size, multimedia elements, social media and other interactive tools. Marketers, publishers and other content creators must leverage design and technology to keep things simple, clean, fast to load and appealing on tablets and other devices.

Your content on every device. No extra budget or resources needed

Learn how to integrate mobile into your current publishing strategy without duplicating your work load or investing more resources. From design to content preparation, enhancements and distribution... Save and make money with a cost-effective mobile publishing approach. Join Yoav as he takes you through the latest stats on digital media consumption by Comscore, and explains why a multi-platform digital publishing approach is the way to go.

How to Optimize your Content for Digital Audiences

Digitizing your content takes more than turning your publication into a plain old PDF. Marketers, publishers and other content creators must leverage design and technology to keep things simple, clean, fast to load and appealing to digital audiences. During this workshop, Yoav will explain how branding, font size, multimedia, pop-ups, layout, social media and other interactive tools can improve the look of your PDFs.
