

Zabrina Epps

Student Trustee at Fielding Graduate University

Washington, DC, US

Human and Organizational Development; Fellow, Marie Fielder Center; Fielding Board of Trustees

Zabrina Epps has been in the Human and Organizational Development (HOD) program at Fielding Graduate University since Fall 2014. She has served as a student member of faculty governance (Personnel and Faculty Development committee); and as a student anchor for new student orientation (NSO). Epps is also a fellow with Fielding's Marie Fielder Center for Democracy, Leadership and Education; and a collaborator and contributing thought leader with the Building Inclusion Council and Chesapeake Cluster in the Washington metropolitan area.

Ms. Epps brings years of higher education experience, public speaking skills, creativity, and expertise in governance and policy making to the design of future education systems, through inclusive collaborations, innovative idea generation and empowered action.

Education/Learning

Human and Organizational Development, Inclusive Collaboration, Idea Generation, Governance, Policymaking

American Association of University Women : Member, National Academic Advising Association : Member, Toastmasters International : Secretary, Columbians Club, Laurel MD 2003-2008, Aunt Hattie's Place, Inc. : Fundraising and Expansion Committees 2000-2003, National Forum for Black Public Administrators : MD Chapter President 1999-2000, 21st Century Women Project, Maryland Women for Responsive Government 1998-2000

Fielding Graduate University

Doctoral Candidate 2019 Human and Organizational Systems

University of Maryland

MPM Public Sector Financial Management

Benedict College, Columbia, SC

BA Political Science

Fellow, Educational Policy Leadership Program

(2011) Institute for Educational Leadership, DC

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.